
Setup Is Unable To Find Installation Languages

(as administrator) and a message appears stating that "The installer cannot find the installation languages in C:\(folders leading to file)\SETUP.LANG". If you are using Windows XP, then the "input" at this point is performed by the Setup Language Selector command. If you are using Windows 2000 or Windows XP, then "input" is done by the Setup\language command. In our case, the "input" is the name (or folder name) of C:\SETUP.Lang. 6. If as a folder C:\SETUP.LANG folder containing LANG files is selected, you can use SETUP\ENULE and SETUP\RULE commands to install and update languages. 7. If as a folder C:\SETUP.LANG folder selected
